93.1 The Party Presents People's Autism Funtown FrightFest "Fun"draiser Featuring Vegas' #1 Haunt Monster Mayhem

93.1 The Party and People's Autism Foundation are hosting Funtown Frightfest from Oct. 9 – Nov. 1, 2009. Hours are M-F 4pm – 12 midnight and Weekends 12 noon - 12 midnight. Funtown Frightfest is located at Boca Park Shopping Center in Summerlin on the SE corner of Rampart and Alta (across from Suncoast Casino).

Admission is $3 for Adults, $2 for Children under 12 or $10 for a Family FrightPack, and includes free popcorn or soda and a coupon good for $1 off admission to Monster Mayhem Haunted Village. Children with disabilities are free. Receive $1 off admission price with each donation of a bag of clothing or household items.

Funtown Frightfest features 10 acres of fun, food and frights including MONSTER MAYHEM Haunted Village, a not-so-scary Kid's Funtown Haunt, midway games, carnival rides, bungee jumping, inflatable bouncy rides, runaway train, haunted hayride, pumpkin patch, pony rides, nightly Creature Feature (kiddy movie), street entertainers, celebrity appearances, live stage entertainment, 50+ food vendors, Spirit & Boos Bar (serving beer and wine), raffles and more. All proceeds benefit People's Autism Foundation.

"Funtown Frightfest provides families the opportunity to have a good time while helping a great cause," said Jason Earl, development director for People's Autism Foundation. "The event is a major fundraiser for our organization, and a great opportunity to increase awareness of autism in our community."

People's Autism Foundation, a local non-profit organization, provides programs and services for children with Autism in the Las Vegas Valley.

Special events scheduled at Funtown Frightfest this October include Teenie Halloweenie Activities, Clark County Schools' GhouL Carnival "Fun" draiser nights, Spooky-oke (karaoke) Contests, Boils & Ghouls Talent Showcase, Howl-o-Ween Dog Costume Contest, Howling Halloween Teen Bash, Thrillvania Battle of the High School Bands, Monster Band Bash, Safe Street and Day of the Dead Celebration.
